Forecast For East Midlands
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 0400 on Tuesday 21 Sep 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Another dry and bright day on Tuesday.

Today:
Any early patchy mist and fog will soon clear. Then dry with patchy cloud, but also sunny periods. Light onshore winds will develop, keeping the Lincolnshire coast slightly cooler. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Tonight:
Long clear spells overnight will allow mist and fog to reform after midnight. Towards dawn a little more cloud may develop over the Derbyshire hills. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Wednesday:
Early mist and fog soon clearing on Wednesday leaving a fine morning. Cloud increasing during the afternoon and turning quite breezy later, staying largely dry though. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Plenty of dry, fine weather, apart from probably some patchy light rain at first Thursday. Breezy on Thursday and Friday but lighter winds on Saturday. Temperatures near average.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.